History Revision Activities

1. Timeline Challenge • Pick a topic (e.g., Anglo-Saxons, Cold War). • Create a timeline of key events with dates and short notes. • Add cause and consequence for each event to strengthen AO1 and AO2 skills. 2. Flashcards for Key Facts • Make flashcards for: • Important dates • Key individuals • Definitions of historical terms • Use apps like Quizlet for quick practice or physical cards for group revision. 3. Practice Source Analysis • Take a past paper source question. • Annotate the source for: • Content (what it says) • Provenance (who, when, why) • Context (link to wider knowledge) • Write a short answer using the PEEL structure (Point, Evidence, Explain, Link). 4. Mind Maps for Themes • Create mind maps for major themes: • Causes of war • Changes in medicine • Power and monarchy • Include key events, people, and significance. 5. Essay Planning Race • Pick a typical exam question (e.g., “How far do you agree...?”). • Spend 10 minutes planning: • Introduction • 3 main arguments with evidence • Counter-argument • Builds speed and structure for the real exam.
